

Finstown to Orphir

St Magnus Way

At Finstown the Mansie Stane tradition runs out and it is possible this is because they travelled by boat from Finstown past Damsay round to Kirkwall rather than traversing the bog or pulling over the hill. The fourth section, from Finstown to Orphir, therefore shifts attention to Hakon, Magnus's cousin who ordered his death and ruled the united Earliship afterwards. He himself made pilgrimage to Rome and Jerusalem and it was likely this journey and the Church of the Holy Sepulchre that inspired the construction of the Round Kirk in Orphir.

Our theme for this stage is Forgiveness – reflecting on whether Hakon was sorry for the murder of Magnus, and our own need to both receive and extend forgiveness. We climb past Cuween Hill to the Hill of Lyradale and then down the other side to the track that leads from Naversdale past Burgir to Nearhouse. From there we walk into Orphir and down to the coast at the Breck, returning to Orphir Kirk via the Earl's Bu and Round Kirk.

DISTANCE: 10.65 miles/17.1 km
TERRAIN: Rough heather across Cuween with good steep tracks up and down Lyradale and a gentler track from Naversdale to Nearhouse. Around Orphir it mostly road walking with a beautiful off road coastal track from The Breck.
